1st Amendment to Grant Agree. w/ Rubin

Requested Action

A RESOLUTION OF THE TOWN OF SOUTHWEST RANCHES, FLORIDA, APPROVING THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE AGREEMENT WITH RICHARD RUBIN TO CREATE A GRANT IDENTIFICATION, WRITING PRESENTATION AND FOLLOW UP PROGRAM, AND AUTHORIZING THE MAYOR, TOWN ADMINISTRATOR AND TOWN ATTORNEY TO EXECUTE SAID AGREEMENT, AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE THEREFOR.

Summary:

Town Administrator recommends this action.

This first amendment is recommended in order to continue our aggressive and very successful grant program.

As of this date the Town has applied for grants totaling $5,070,392 and we have been awarded a total of $2,576,548 in the first year of this agreement. Of the remaining applications totaling $1,550,393, all are still open for potential award. This outstanding application must be followed up in order for the Town to obtain awards.

We have identified three specific projects; land acquisition potential at the Masters Academy site, seven (7) LAPC sites or archaeological sites and development of an entryway park at Griffin Road and US 27.

Unidentified grant opportunities continue to become available so we have defined a minimum of $2.0 million in additional grant applications that will be developed, applied for and followed through on.

This first amendment would include the follow up on all outstanding applications, three specific projects (identified above) and an additional application of $2.0 million. This agreement would continue at the same annual consultant compensation of $78,000. Funding is available within the budget to provide for this agreement.
