Article 45

Section 045-030 Agricultural and Rural Districts

Section (X) - 1. - Purpose

The Town Council finds that certain transitory uses of residential property tend to affect the residential character of the community and are injurious to the health of the community. Therefore, it is necessary and in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to monitor and provide reasonable means for residents of the Town of Southwest Ranches to mitigate impacts created by such transitory uses of residential property within the Town. It is unlawful for any owner of any property within the Town of Southwest Ranches to rent or operate a vacation rental of residential property contrary to the procedures and regulation established in this Article and applicable state statutes.

Sec. (X) - 2. – Definitions

For the purpose of this article, the following terms, phrases, words, abbreviations and their derivations shall have the meaning given herein. When not inconsistent with the context, words used in the present tense include the future tense, words in the plural number include the singular number, and words in the singular number include the plural number. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not merely directory.

Vacation rental shall mean any individually or collectively owned single family, two family, three family, or four family house or dwelling unit that is rented to transient occupants more than three (3) times in a calendar year for periods of less than thirty (30) days or one (1) calendar month, whichever is less, or which is advertised or held out to the public as a place regularly rented to transient occupants, and also a transient public lodging establishment as defined in F.S. § 509.013 but that is not a timeshare project.

Sec. (X) – 3. Registration Required

(a) It is unlawful for any person, entity, or property owner to allow another person to occupy any residential property that is a single family, two family, three family, or four family house or dwelling unit as a vacation rental within the Town unless the owner of the property or his/her authorized representative has registered the property as a

(e) That the owner shall comply with all applicable Town, County, state, and federal laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, and statutes; and

(f) That a list of Town regulations, to include those identified in the noise ordinance, and solid waste and recycling rules were provided to the lessee.

- (6) Proof of owner's current ownership of the property;
- (7) Proof of registration with the Florida Department of Revenue for sales tax collection and Broward County for Tourist Development Tax;
- (8) Proof of licensure with the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation for transient public lodging establishments;
- (9) Proof of vacation rental home insurance

Sec. (X) - 5. - Fees for registration

The Town charges reasonable fees for registration to compensate for administrative expenses. The fees for registration shall be provided for, from time to time, by resolution adopted by the Town Council. Fees are non-refundable.

Sec. (X) - 6. – False information

It shall be unlawful for any person to give any false or misleading information in connection with any application for registration, modification, or renewal of a vacation rental as required by Town code. Any false statements made in an application may be a basis for the revocation of any license issued pursuant to such application.

Sec. (X) - 7. – Vacation rental standards

The following standards shall govern the use of any vacation rental required to be registered within the Town of Southwest Ranches Code of Ordinances:

(a) Minimum life/safety requirements:

(1) Swimming pool, spa, and hot tubs shall comply with the current standards of the Residential Swimming Pool Safety Act, F.S. ch. 515.

(2) All dwelling units shall meet the minimum requirements of the Florida Building Code.

violations must be corrected, and the dwelling unit must be re-inspected prior to issuance of the initial vacation rental certificate of compliance as provided herein.

(b) Once issued, a vacation rental unit must be properly maintained in accordance with the vacation rental standards herein and will be re-inspected annually. For an inspection, all violations must be corrected and re-inspected within thirty (30) calendar days. Failure to correct such inspection deficiencies in the timeframes provided shall result in the suspension of the vacation rental certificate of compliance until such time as the violations are corrected and re-inspected.

(c) The inspections shall be made by appointment with the vacation rental responsible party. If the inspector has made an appointment with the responsible party to complete an inspection, and the responsible party fails to admit the officer at the scheduled time, the owner shall be charged a "no show" fee in an amount to be determined by resolution of the Town Council to cover the inspection expense incurred by the Town.

(d) If the inspector(s) is denied admittance by the vacation rental responsible party or if the inspector fails in at least three (3) attempts to complete an initial or subsequent inspection of the rental unit, the inspector(s) shall provide notice of failure of inspection to the owner to the address shown on the existing vacation rental certificate of compliance or the application for vacation rental.

- (1) For an initial inspection, the notice of failure of inspection results in the certificate of compliance not being issued; the vacation rental is not permitted to operate without a valid certificate of compliance.
- (2) For a subsequent inspection, the notice of failure of inspection is considered a violation and is subject to enforcement remedies as provided herein.

(e) The Town Council may, by resolution, prescribe the circumstances under which the inspections required by this section may be waived.

Sec. (X) 9. - Registration not transferable.

No registration issued under this article shall be transferred or assigned or used by any person other than the one to whom it is issued, or at any location other than the one for which it is issued.

Sec. (X) 10. - Expiration of registration and certificates of compliance.

(a) All registrations for which a certificate of compliance has been issued under the provisions of this article shall be valid for no more than one (1) year, and all registrations and certificates of compliance shall expire one year from date of issuance. The application for renewal must be submitted no later than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date. Late renewal fees shall be established by resolution of the Town Council of the Town of Southwest Ranches and shall be charged to an application for renewal submitted prior to the expiration date but after the sixty (60) days required by this section. All applications

Sec. (X) 11. - Penalties, offenses, and revocation.

(a) Any certificate of compliance issued pursuant to this article may be denied, revoked, or suspended by the Town Administrator or his or her designee upon the adjudication of a violation of this article, any Town ordinance, or state law by the responsible party, property owner or transient occupant attributable to the property for which the certificate of compliance is issued. Such denial, revocation or suspension is in addition to any penalty provided herein. An advertisement of the property for purposes of a Vacation Rental shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the use of that property as a Vacation Rental for purposes of enforcing all sections of this Chapter. Citations, as well as other means of enforcement, may be issued to the property owner, the Vacation Rental representative, the tenant, or any combination of the three.

(b) Offenses/violations.

- (1) Non-compliance with any provisions of this article shall constitute a violation of this article.
- (2) Separate violations. Each day a violation exists shall constitute a separate and distinct violation, except that violations of subsection (X) - 7(b), regarding occupancy, shall constitute a single violation for a rental period.

(c) Remedies/enforcement.

(1) Any person violating any of the provisions of this article may be issued a Notice of Violation by the Town of Southwest Ranches Code Enforcement or Police Department. Each violation shall carry a maximum civil penalty of up to five hundred dollars ($500) per violation, plus any applicable administrative costs or fees. A Town of Southwest Ranches Code Enforcement Officer or Police Officer is authorized to issue a citation and not a warning upon first offense.

(2) Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Town from seeking all other available remedies which may include, but not be limited to, suspension or revocation of a vacation rental certificate of compliance, injunctive relief, liens and other civil and criminal penalties as provided by law, as well as referral to other enforcing agencies.

(d) In addition to any fines and any other remedies described herein or provided for by law, a special magistrate may suspend a vacation rental certificate of compliance in accordance with the following:

(1) Suspension time frames.

- a. Upon a third violation of this article the vacation rental certificate shall be suspended for a period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days.
- b. Upon a fourth violation of this article the vacation rental certificate shall be suspended for a period of three hundred sixty-five (365) calendar days.
- c. For each additional violation of this article the vacation rental certificate shall be suspended for an additional thirty (30) calendar days up to a maximum period of twelve (12) months. For example, the fifth violation shall
