Discussion Items:

- Debra Ruesga was introduced as our new liaison.
- Kathy followed-up after the meeting with Mr. Runcie and Ms. Mitchell. The Superintendent did write to the FLDOT concerning the intersection at US 27 and Griffin Road (Southbound turns from Griffin onto 27). The DOT will not put an arrow, but will install a sign: "Left Turn Yield to Green". Kathy also spoke with the HEART folks, but was disappointed. The high school itself (WBSH) stepped-up! A homeless liaison is now in place. Jennifer would like a list of the contact people at each school site.

- Patti Good's election kick-off breakfast was Saturday (she is currently running unopposed). Kathy spoke on out town's behalf...Patti has done a lot for our kids. Robin Bartleman is running for Richard Stark's seat, as he is term-limited (he will be running for Mayor of Weston).
- Debbie gave a finance update. $9,981 came in from the Pageant; $1,300 from FPL; $2,090 is from roll-over; current balance so far is $11,281. Country Estates will be giving a check towards the SIKH Run. Debbie will receive a copy of the receipt logging all cash and checks turned into the Town for the scholarship account. She wants to ensure proper depositing of funds.
- Kathy discussed the upcoming dance on the 7th and what is needed. She provided a check-off list...we described board member duties and contributions. Jennifer created tickets. $50/person, or $450/table...we have a limit of 100 people for the room. We must plan for dance-floor space. The DJ is confirmed. Page met with Outback's new manager (Ken), and will set-up the menu items (like last year- steak/chicken, roll/butter, salad, condiments, etc.). Kathy has six volunteers so far. Shorty's will be donating again (baked potatoes, Cole slaw, beans, sheet cake, etc.). Russell will check when we can go into the barn to start prepping for the night. Some gift items potentially in the works include Guy Harvey (Debbie), Marine Max sponsorship and advertisement of event (Page), autographed lacrosse stick (Priscilla), Super Bowl paraphernalia (Gary)...we can make a flyer highlighting all donors. Jennifer will create the silent auction list paperwork.

The meeting concluded at 8:20pm.
